Xmas newsletter

Hi everyone. This will be a short newsletter as I haven't got time to do any more!

Don't forget to pick up your gift if you haven't already. Really great choice and has already been used by several people.

Last day to pay for the Xmas breakfast is Friday 13th December. The brekky is at Caffe Primo Tuesday 17th December from 8 am. $30 for members

Last day of walking for this year is Friday 13th December. First day back is Tuesday 14th January. You can of course walk over the break, but as there will be no instructors available please don't wear your mallwalking t-shirt.

I will attach a form for you to complete if you have had any changes to address, phone number, emergency contact, Doctor, medical conditions or medications. You can either email it back to me or bring along when we start back. Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our wonderful instructors both the usual ones and the sometimes ones. We have had quite a few fill ins this year because of holidays, work and injuries, so thanks to all of those instructors. It makes it a lot easier when we can fill those positions.

A big thank you to the committee who work tirelessly to make sure that the group continues to flourish. A special thank you to Dick Smithson who has helped Bill out for quite a bit of the year—really appreciated. Also to Renata who does the birthday cards, day trips, some social events and along with Jillian seems to fill in whenever needed. A group is only as good as the people who run it so well done and have a well deserved break.

AM I getting to that age?

I found this timely, because today I was in a store that sells sunglasses, and only sunglasses. A young lady walked over to me and asked, "What brings you in today ? I looked at her and said, "I'm interested in buying a refrigerator." She didn't quite know how to respond.

I was thinking about old age and decided that old age is when you still have something on the ball, but you are just too tired to bounce it.

When people see a cat's litter box they always say, "Oh, have you got a cat?" Just once I want to say, "No, it's for company!"

Aging: Eventually you will reach a point when you stop lying about your age and start bragging about it.

HAVE A GREAT XMAS AND NEW YEAR
